CPR INSTRUCTOR COURSE

February 27, 2010
9:00am-6:00pm

At the

Durham Training Center
1 Milkrun Drive
East Durham, NY

The Durham Training Center will host an American Heart Association Basic Life Support CPR instructor class on February 27, 2010. This class will provide the core instructor training, as well as the specific requirements needed to receive a BLS and Heartsaver Instructor Certificate. This day long class will review effective teaching methods, as well as the organizational procedures, and structure to teach the AHA courses.

The cost of the course is $150.00. This price includes the AHA CPR instructor manual, all materials used in the class, instruction time, and lunch. Pre-registration is required, and the course is limited to a total of 8 people. Upon completion of the core content, the student will be required to student teach in a class under supervision of an additional instructor, and ultimately be monitored in a class of their own. Successful completion of requirements will yield an Instructor certificate to teach both Heartsaver and Healthcare Provider courses. Pre-requisite for attendance is a current HCP certification.

Registration will be on a first registered basis. A $50.00 registration fee must accompany the registration form below. The balance of fee is due at the time of the class. If you need further information, or any questions, please contact:
