SUBJECTS OF THE EXAMINATION: There will be a written test which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. Only your score on the written test will be considered when computing your final score. In addition, candidates must meet the physical fitness and medical standards prescribed by the Municipal Police Training Council. Candidates must pass the written test in order to be scheduled for the qualifying physical fitness test. Candidates who pass the qualifying physical fitness test and who are given a conditional offer of employment will be scheduled to take the required medical examination.

WRITTEN TEST: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

- 1. Applying written information (rules, regulations, policies, procedures, directives, etc.) in police situations: These questions test for the ability to apply written rules in given situations similar to those typically experienced by police officers.
- 2. Memory for facts and information: These questions test for the ability to remember facts and information presented in written form. You will be given 5 minutes to read and study the information in the Memory Booklet. After the 5-minute period, the Memory Booklet will be taken away. You will then be required to answer questions about the material that was presented in the Memory Booklet.
- 3. Reading, understanding and interpreting written information: These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and interpret the kinds of written information that police officers are required to read during their formal training period and on the job.
- 4. Preparing written material in a police setting: These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police officers write. You will be presented with a page of notes followed by several questions. Each question will consist of four restatements of the information given in the notes. From each set of four, you must choose the version that presents the information most clearly and accurately.

P.E.R.C. STATEMENT: The rating key for this examination will be established by the New York State Civil Service Commission prior to the date of the test, upon recommendation of a committee of police experts who will review all the questions for appropriateness and the key answers for correctness. There will be no review of the questions by candidates. This committee was selected with the assistance and endorsement of the Police Conference of New York, Inc., the New York State Association of PBA's, Inc., and the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc.

The municipal Police Training Council adopted the physical fitness-screening test based on the model formulated by the Cooper Institute of Aerobics Research. The minimum passing scores, depending on age and sex, represent the fortieth (40th) percentile of physical fitness as established by the Cooper Institute. Failure on a part of qualifying test will remove your name from further consideration for appointment. Copies of the physical fitness and medical standards are available upon request from this agency.

QUALIFYING PHYSICAL FITNESS TEST: The three elements measured in the qualifying physical fitness test are muscular endurance, absolute strength and cardiovascular activity. The following is a brief description of the physical fitness test.

MUSCULAR ENDURANCE: The requirement is for a number of bent-leg sit-ups to be performed in one minute.

ABSOLUTE STRENGTH: Push-ups-this test measures endurance of the upper body (anterior deltoid, pectorals, major and triceps). The requirement is for a number of full body repetitions that a candidate must complete without breaks.

CARDIOVASCULAR ACTIVITY: 1.5 mile run; the requirement is for the attainment of a score calculated in minutes and seconds.

GREENE COUNTY will allow one (1) retest if you fail the first qualifying physical fitness test, a second re-test will be offered two (2) weeks later. If you fail the second test, your name will be restricted.

VETERAN'S CREDIT: Veterans or disabled veterans who are eligible for additional credit must submit an application for veteran's credit with their application for examination or at any time between the dates of their application for examination and the date of the establishment of the resulting eligible list. Applications for veteran's credit are available from this office. Veteran's credits can only be added to a passing score on the examination.

Effective January 1, 1998, the State Constitution was amended to permit a candidate currently in the armed forces to apply for and be conditionally granted veteran's credit in examinations. Any candidate who applies for such credit must provide proof of military status to receive the conditional credit. No credit may be granted after the establishment of the list. It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide appropriate documentary proof indicating that the service was in time of war, as defined in Section 85 of Civil Service Law, and that the candidate received an honorable discharge or was released under honorable conditions in order to be certified at a score including veteran's credits.

A Guide for the Written Test for Police Entrance is available at the New York State website: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the Greene County Civil Service Office, 411 Main Street, 3rd Floor, Room 340, Catskill, NY or call the office at (518) 719-3253.
