TOURISM

Three New Businesses Join Forces for a Great Event

Megan Pflug and Jay Penry sold out their rooms at The Woodhouse Lodge in Greenville as they hosted a Natural Wine and Pasta Dinner on February 15. The wine selection was curated by Shai Kessler and Susan Baldaserini of the Reed Street Bottle Shop in Coxsackie, paired with delectable pasta dishes from Sfoglini Pasta manufactured in Coxsackie by Scott Ketchum and Steve Gonzales. All six of these entrepreneurs relocated to Greene County over the past 3 years and created this unique marketing opportunity promoting their products and services at a single event. Each new business received concierge service, support, and financing as part of the Invest In Greene initiative.

Local Inn Adds Electric Vehicle Charging Stations

The Rose Motel on NYS Route 145 in Durham has expanded its hospitality offerings with the installation of two Tesla and two Clipper Creek EV Charging Stations. Guests of the Motel can charge their vehicles for free, and if you're not staying (or just passing through) and need juice, it's only $6. With the number of Electric Vehicles on the rise, destinations with free charging stations attract new, environmentally conscious customers.
