“VOLUNTEERS BRING COLOR TO OUR WORLD”

GREENE COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES ALWAYS HAS OPPORTUNITIES FOR VOLUNTEERS.

*Do you drive? Consider delivering meals to homebound seniors.
Or you could drive a senior without transportation to a medical appointment.*

Don't drive? Maybe you would like to make telephone calls to lonely isolated seniors?

Need more socializing? How about volunteering at a congregate meal site?

Haven't seen what you're looking for listed?
Give Ruth Pforte, Volunteer Coordinator, a call at 518-719-3555
for information on these opportunities and the many others we have to offer.

DELIVER HOMEBOUND MEALS

The department provides healthy, balanced meals to Greene County residents, age 60 and older, who cannot prepare meals for themselves. Volunteers deliver these meals and check on the senior.

HOMEBOUND MEDICAL TRANSPORTATION

Homebound Medical Transportation Service is available through the Department to county residents, age 60 and older, that do not have other options for needed transportation. The program will arrange for a volunteer driver. Rides are arranged to medical appointments and to special entitlement agencies.

Are you willing to drive seniors to appointments in a neighboring county?
We especially could use you.

"MOTHER" DILLON

As part of their special Mother's Day luncheon, the Rivertown Senior Center was visited by none other than "Mother" Dillon. Her surprise visit brought a smile (and laugh) to many of the seniors present that day.

So far this year, Rivertown has been visited by some chickens for a chicken dinner, the Easter Bunny for the Easter luncheon, and for Mother's Day by "Mother" Dillon. Makes you wonder who else will pay a surprise visit. Maybe for Independence Day it will be Uncle Sam?

It's always a delight to go to Rivertown Senior Center!

Throughout the summer, the Thrift Shop will be having "Un-Advertised Specials". Stop in. You never know what you will find.

HOURS OPEN:

MONDAY	9:00 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.
TUESDAY	9:00 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.
WEDNESDAY	9:00 A.M. - 11:30 A.M. and 12:30 P.M. - 2:00 P.M.
THURSDAY	CLOSED

GOVERNOR CUOMO ANNOUNCES MONEY TO HELP VULNERABLE NEW YORKERS STAY COOL THIS SUMMER

*Individuals Who Suffer from Heat-Related Illnesses
Can Apply to Receive Air Conditioners
Funding Increased from Last Year to Meet Higher Demand*

NYS Governor Andrew M. Cuomo announced that $6 million will be available to help New Yorkers, suffering from serious health issues that are aggravated by extreme heat, purchase air conditioners. Individuals can apply in person for cooling assistance through the Home Energy Assistance Program at their county department of social services. "The summer months can bring extreme heat, which puts our most vulnerable New Yorkers at risk," Governor Cuomo said.

With summer heat fast approaching, it is important to remember that older adults are particularly susceptible to extreme temperatures. Those who are HEAP eligible and have a medical need may be eligible to receive an air conditioner - including installation - free of charge. Information on this program can be obtained from the local office for the aging (<https://aging.ny.gov/NYSOFA/LocalOffices.cfm>) or from the local department of social services (<http://otda.ny.gov/programs/heap/contacts/>). Information can also be obtained by calling NY Connects at 1-800-342-9871.

During the summer months, heat-related assistance to older adults local Offices for the Aging work with the local DSS for HEAP assistance by providing tips to keep cool; and connecting lower income residents to weatherization and home repair programs. These efforts support older and vulnerable adults by linking them to the programs necessary to remain safely and comfortably at home.

To qualify, applicants must meet existing HEAP eligibility criteria and income guidelines, which vary by household size, and have at least one member of the household that suffers from a documented medical condition exacerbated by extreme heat. Cooling assistance will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis. County departments of social services will accept applications through August 30, or until funding runs out.

NUTRITION CORNER

WATER and YOUR HEALTH

The human body's largest component is water - on average 60% of an adult's body weight is water. As we age, the water content in our bodies decreases and the risk for dehydration increases. Dehydration in elderly people is more common than you might think. Dehydration has been associated with UTI (Urinary Tract Infections), confusion, impaired cognition, falling and constipation.

Why?

Taste and thirst sensations decrease as we age. Therefore, if you don't feel hungry or thirsty, you don't consume as much food or liquid. Remember food has a fluid component also.

If you have been prescribed a medication labeled a diuretic (water pill), be sure to consume adequate fluids. It is expected that the diuretic may lead to more frequent bathroom visits. If you do not consume enough fluid, you have an increased risk of becoming dehydrated.

Signs of dehydration:

- Mild symptoms:
 - Dry, sticky mouth and tongue
 - Lightheaded or dizzy
 - Weakness and headache
- Moderate symptoms:
 - Confused or irritable
 - Stop sweating
 - Dark urine or decreased urine output
 - Low blood pressure- lower than usual
 - Increased heart rate
- Severe symptoms:
 - Fainting or unconsciousness
 - Disoriented
 - Onset of fever

SOCIAL SECURITY'S RECENT TOP FIVE BLOG POSTS

Social Security matters to millions of people and that's why we aptly named our blog Social Security Matters. Over the past several years, more and more people have realized that our blog is a trusted source for information and easy-to-share articles. Here are five recent popular blog posts:

1. Three Common Ways Your Social Security Payment Can Grow After Retirement

You made the choice and now you are happily retired. You filed online for your Social Security benefits. They arrive each month in the correct amount exactly as expected. But, did you ever wonder if your Social Security check could increase? You can see all three ways at blog.ssa.gov/three-common-ways-your-social-security-payment-can-grow-after-retirement.

2. So You've Lost Your Social Security Card

Losing important documents is frustrating, especially something as important as your Social Security card. You'll want to consider whether you really need to get a replacement card. Knowing your number is what's important, after all. You'll rarely need the card itself — perhaps only when you get a new job and have to show it to your employer. Learn how to replace your card at blog.ssa.gov/so-you've-lost-your-social-security-card/

3. Is that Phone Call From Us?

It's the morning of a busy day at home and you get a call from an unknown number. You answer only to find yourself on the receiving end of a threatening message saying your Social Security benefits will stop immediately unless you provide your personal information. It happens every day to thousands of Americans. And it's not Social Security calling. Read more about this scam at blog.ssa.gov/is-that-phone-call-from-us/

4. Need to Change Your Name on Your Social Security Card?

Are you changing your name? If so, let Social Security know so we can update your information, send you an updated card, and make sure you get the benefits you've earned. Updating your card is easy at blog.ssa.gov/need-to-change-your-name-on-your-social-security-card.

5. Spruce Up Your Financial Plan with Social Security

Now that tax season is over, it's probably a good time to evaluate some financial "best practices" for the rest of the year. A good spring-cleaning can clear out the clutter to let you see a clear path for your future. Social Security is always here to help. Even if you just started working, now is the time to start preparing for retirement. Achieving the dream of a secure, comfortable retirement is much easier with a strong financial plan. Read more at blog.ssa.gov/spruce-up-your-financial-plan-with-social-security.

These aren't the only topics that might matter to you on Social Security Matters. You can always subscribe and get alerts for new policies, COLA information, and more. Remember, you can easily share these blog posts with friends and family both on social media and via email. Sharing what matters to you can change someone's life for the better.

CRIMINALS POSE AS GOVERNMENT PRETENDING TO HELP IDENTITY THEFT

In one of the most ironic twists to come along in identity theft-based crime, there is a new scam attempt making the rounds, that works so well, because it tries to protect you from – you guessed it – identity theft. According to one victim's story, criminals posed as members of government agencies and pretended that the victim's identity had been stolen and asked him to cooperate in resolving this issue.

A scammer will call and claim to be from the Social Security Administration (SSA). The scammer states your Social Security number has been used to rent a car. That seems fairly straightforward and basic. The catch, though, is that the "agent" eventually transfers the call to someone pretending to be a Border Patrol agent, who in turn says the car has been recovered at the border and that there was a large amount of illegal drugs within the vehicle. The callers threatened the victim in a very plausible way, even admitting that the victim probably had nothing to do with this, but would spend tens of thousands of dollars in attorney's fees clearing the matter. Sadly, after the victim has sent photos of the card numbers, PIN numbers or other information and/or money to the scammers, it appears as if he/she has bought thousands of dollars in Google Play, gift cards, etc. Here are some warning signs that could have prevented this crime, if the victim knows what to look for:

- Do not trust caller ID to be a verified identity. Any name or number, even your own, can be programmed to appear on that screen.
- The Social Security Administration does not call citizens about benefit matters, to buy gift cards and do not give card details.
- The government does not call individual consumers and enlist their help in an investigation.
- No one will ever call you with a legitimate issue and only give you an hour to comply, so be on your guard against high-pressure tactics.

To avoid being scammed, follow a few simple steps. First, ask for the name and agent identification number, then hang up. Contact the SSA yourself using a verified phone number, and ask the agent about this call. You can do this for any government agency the scammer claims to be from. In fact, imposter scams were the most reported complaint in 2018 to the Federal Trade Commission. Once you call the agency, provide the "agent's" name and number, and tell them what you were told. You will immediately be informed that your information has not been compromised and this was a scam. Finally, report the phone call to your local law enforcement agency. They can post the incident on their social media pages so that others in your community are not victimized.

The Identity Theft Resource Center is here to help. Speak to an identity theft advisor for toll-free, no-cost assistance at (888) 400-5530. For on-the-go assistance, check out the free ID Theft Help App from ITRC.

News From the Greene County Youth Bureau

PEER COURT HOLDS GRADUATION

Fifteen youth from the Cairo-Durham, Catskill, Coxsackie Athens and Greenville school districts, were sworn in by Judge Wanda Dorpfeld as the first participants in Greene County Peer Court. Peer Court (or youth court) is a diversionary program for first time low level offenders between the ages of 12 and 18. Peer Courts follow restorative justice practices, meaning that the victim, offender and community are all stakeholders. Offenders are 'tried' before a jury of their peers, and sentenced to meaningful, productive sanctions, such as community service and letters of apology. The students attend a six week training and must pass a bar exam to be sworn in. They look forward to taking on real cases referred by police agencies and or probation. Seen in photo with the students is Heather Daley, Victims' Advocate and Peer Court Coordinator of Community Action of Greene County, Inc., and Judge Dorpfeld.

FREE YOUTH GOLF DAY

Governor Andrew M. Cuomo kicked off the PGA championship by announcing Free Youth Golf Day, a statewide event offering youth 18 and under a free round at all 28 New York State Parks golf courses. The event will take place on July 20 and serve to introduce children across the state to the game and the opportunities available at New York State Parks.

"I'm excited about today and I'm excited about the PGA of America and what they've done. We want to encourage and grow the sport of golf in New York. To help encourage that, the State is going to sponsor an event on July 20th where anyone under the age of 18 years old can golf for free at any of our state facilities," Governor Cuomo said. "It's a nice way to get young people out to experience the game, and I think once they experience it and they understand it, they will be hooked, so we look forward to doing that."

"The PGA Championship is expected to attract hundreds of thousands of visitors to New York," said Lieutenant Governor Kathy Hochul. "We're encouraging more young people to utilize our golf courses across the state, and the Free Youth Golf Day will help to support increased activity and participation. New York has some of the best golf courses at our state parks, and programs like these build on our efforts to promote recreation and tourism statewide."

New York State Parks currently maintains and oversees 28 golf courses located at 20 State Parks across New York. Approximately 600,000 rounds of golf are played at State Park golf courses each year, bringing in an average of $17 million in annual revenue. Under the State Park golf program, which contracts with PGA golf professionals, both experienced and novice golfers can take lessons from some of the best players in this sport. For a list of State Park golf courses, and specific details for fees and lessons with PGA golf professionals, go to <https://parks.ny.gov/golf/>
