The global coronavirus has brought uncertainty and anxiety into people's lives, workplaces, and neighborhoods, particularly for those who work to improve the health of our communities.

Many of our grantees are working tirelessly on multiple fronts to help people who are struggling with the impact of COVID-19, especially the most vulnerable.

Below is a list of national, State, and local resources for our grantees and other partners that may help their organizations and the New Yorkers they serve during these difficult times. NYSHealth will continue to add more resources and initiatives as they are made available.
